Terms and Licensing Policy

When submitting the paper(s) to ICCBEI 2025, the author(s) accepts the terms of the ICCBEI 2025 Copyright Transfer Terms and Licensing Policy as follows:

1. The author(s) affirm that the paper has not been published elsewhere and will not be published elsewhere prior to ICCBEI 2025.
2. The author(s) will grant to ICCBEI 2025 a nonexclusive, royalty-free, perpetual, worldwide, irrevocable, sublicensable, and transferable license to publish the paper (in unmodified form) and its online presentation (such as video recordings) in any fashion (including but not limited to inclusion in the ICCBEI 2025 printed and electronic proceedings, via electronic means such as the world wide web, and inclusion in future compilations of papers). This “nonexclusive” license means that the author(s) are not restricted to future use of the material except that exclusive rights cannot be granted to another.
3. The author(s) affirm that they have the right to grant the license specified in (2), that is, publication by ICCBEI 2025 or its licensees will not be in conflict with copyright or other restrictions.
4. The author(s) acknowledge that acceptance of the paper does not imply ICCBEI 2025’s endorsement of or agreement with the ideas presented. Under no circumstances shall ICCBEI 2025 be liable for any damages resulting from the use of the information included in the paper.
5. The author(s) acknowledge that conditions for eventual publication of the paper in the ICCBEI 2025 conference proceedings are predicated upon registration and presentation of the paper at the ICCBEI 2025 event by at least one of the above authors.
6. The author(s) retain the right to self-archive CEI’s final/published version of their papers in their institutional repositories.

By rejecting the terms and licensing policy above, the submitted work will not be processed for publication.
